Dedication

FOR YOU, "MOM" . . .

Some teachers have the rare quality of making their students learn without realizing it. Though we gave you many hard times, you taught us. If we needed praise, you gave it; if we needed encouragement, you encouraged; and if we needed a push you never hesitated to get behind and shove. You laughed with us in many happy times and felt our sorrow during the few sad moments. You were our mother in our little "home" in room 104. As we leave, we give to you a token of our appreciation. We dedicate to you, Mrs. Lee Bohne, our 1974 Quill.

Retirement

Mrs. Elizabeth Lee

Everyone who meets Mrs. Betty Lee can sense the friendliness in her. She's always ready to help and listen sympathetically to anyone's problems. She first came to Richburg in 1954 as a physical education teacher. She left in June of 1957 but came back to us in 1967 as our Guidance Counselor. Since then she's done her best to make everyone's years in Richburg Central happy ones. She's done her best to help every student reach his goal and has often given the extra little push that was needed. Now she is leaving us to retire. We're not only losing an excellent Guidance Counselor, we're losing a concerned teacher and a dedicated and concerned friend.

Mrs. Ruth Saunders

Many, many adjectives may be used to describe a favorite English teacher, yet two especially stand out. Understanding and caring are the basic qualities of Mrs. Ruth Saunders. Lots of old fashioned love shines through in her work. Teaching two generations of students in THIRTY-FOUR years tells Mrs. Saunders has many insights into human nature and especially, teen-agers.

Some of the memories summoned from the depths of the mind are spelling bees, exploring the complexities of the English language, and just plain work and fun.

Not one of us can bear the thought of your leaving, Mrs. Saunders, but we wish you the best for your retirement.

BRUCE T. FORNESS
SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

To the Members of the Class of '74

The future becomes the present each time you peruse your yearbook. As you read this from time to time, I hope you will always find each reading to be a pleasant time in your life.

Do not judge your success in life on your material wealth but rather your spiritual welfare and your outlook on life.

Remember the good times at R.C.S. and leave your poorer times in the past.

We are at your service at any time, and we want you to feel free to call us if you need help.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce T. Forness

Senior Class Will

I, WANDA BUTTON, do bequeath to LUANNE BUTTS my ability to skip 27 days of the school year and still plan on graduating.

I, WANDA BUTTON, do bequeath to CINDY JOHNSTON my ability to hang out in Bolivar until just before Doug comes home, and a pick of one of my OLD boyfriends. You may need one after Dave reads this (beware, I may need one of yours!!).

I, KIMBERLY BURDICK, do bequeath to KIRBY COOK my ability to fill a basketball uniform, whether I play or not!

I, STEVE BURDICK, do bequeath to KEN BURDICK my ability to stay out of trouble and my seat in English class.

I, MOREY BUTTS, do bequeath to TRUDY PYTCHER a year's supply of tape for our favorite conversations. O.H.

I, JERRY CHILDS, do bequeath to BRENT HOWARD my ability to jump, so he won't get stuffed next year.

I, MIKE ECK, do bequeath to STEVE KERSWILL the ability to grow a little bit.

I, LUANN FAULKNER, do bequeath to LOIS EDWARDS 6 boxes of Brach chocolates, 4 dozen jelly donuts (Super Duper's specialty!), and 2 lumps of sugar. Now may you have a REAL REASON to diet.

I, DAVID FORNESS, do bequeath to KEVIN BAKER and COLLIE GILLILAND my ability (luck) in printing.

I, ROBERT GOULD, do bequeath to ROGER WARNER my ability to hunt, fish, tie a knot, and use a chain saw successfully.

I, KANDY HADDEN, do bequeath to REBECCA ECK and DICKEE FAULKNER my ability to play cards on the BOCES bus.

I, JYM HAWKES, do bequeath to ANDY NEUDECK the ability to soak up more than a 1000 pound sponge (goodie?).

I, KATHY HOWARD, do bequeath to RIP SCOTT two ounces of black pepper, a stuffed yellow kitten to keep you company, and 28 pens. (also a bug!).

I, KATHY HOWARD, do bequeath to DARLENE PARKER one megaphone so that you may make yourself heard.

I, KATHY HOWARD, do bequeath to EVVY WHITCHER my ability to have good parties on APRIL 2. Have fun!

I, BONNIE MANNERS, do bequeath to LESLIE MAXSON my ability to laugh.

I, BONNIE MANNERS, do bequeath to JODY JOHNSTON one of my old boyfriends. Take your pick.

I, BONNIE MANNERS, do bequeath to KAREN MANNERS my ability to goof-off and still make it through my senior year.

I, ELLEN MARSH, do bequeath to WANNETTA HEWITT my ability to tolerate Sandi. May the good Lord help you!!!

I, ELLEN MARSH, do bequeath to SANDI COVERT my ability to keep quiet. (and ?????).

I, DAVE MOSHER, do bequeath to JOHN MILLER my car for those midnight rides to Clarksville on Friday nights.

I, DONNA MOSHER, do bequeath to BARB MOSES my loquaciousness (yapp ability).

I, DONNA MOSHER, do bequeath to ANDY NEUDECK my "prominent seat" as Student Council President.

I, WARREN MOYER, do bequeath to KIRBY COOK the ability to get a Class A pass.

I, NANCY NEU, do bequeath to CHERYL LOWE my ability to giggle infectiously.

I, FRANK PAXHIA, do bequeath to TOM COYLE one (1) physics teacher and one (1) English teacher. May you have as many good times as I didn't.

I, CAROL PERKINS, do bequeath to PEGGY CAMPBELL and ELLEN McCREA all of next year's basketball team. Peggy, you can jump all the girls over 5'7" instead of me. Ellen, you can take care of Horse for me. I wish you all the luck in the world 'cause you ARE going to need any you can get.

I, CAROL PERKINS, do bequeath to KEIVN BAKER a fine tooth comb for your gorgeous purple coat. Your hairy collar has crawly things, Pete.

I, BECKY REISMAN, do bequeath to DICKEE FAULKNER and BECKY ECK my fun times on the BOCES bus.

I, WILSON ROUGHT, do bequeath to RANDY MOYER, COLLIE GILLILAND, and KEVIN LITTLE my seat on the senior BOCES bus. Use it wisely, gentlemen!

A BETTER NEWSPAPER TODAY ... A GREATER NEWSPAPER TOMORROW

AN OFFSET NEWSPAPER WITH OVER 25,000 CIRCULATION!

Center City Project Gets Green Light With Added Money

By MARGARET KENNEDY
The area light has been given to Olean for development of the proposed 100-acre project in downtown Olean.

The Olean Urban Renewal Agency (URA) will begin acquisition of the property in its second block of the project.

Approval of the project has been given by the Olean City Council. The URA will begin acquisition of the property in its second block of the project.

URA President Robert F. Cooper, vice president, has announced an early start for the project. He said the property can be purchased for the URA and turned over to Cooper, he said.

Cooper said the project is a long-term plan. He said the property can be purchased for the URA and turned over to Cooper, he said.

Covering A Five County Area

The Olean, N.Y. Times Herald has the reputation of being one of the fastest growing newspapers in New York State, a circulation increase of over 2,000 in three years.

Representative 100,000 subscribers like the completeness of its coverage of news in the five counties it serves, its national and world coverage of the news, and its annual feature stories and photos.

Offset for more than three years, the Times Herald sets a high standard of excellence in the reproduction of its photos, including press releases, and is now using a new, more than 300 separate photos.

Local coverage covers all the news in Cattaraugus and Allegany counties in New York State and in McKean, Potter, and Cameron counties in Pennsylvania.

The newspaper during the past year opened offices in Wellsville, Allegany County, and in Bradford, McKean County, in Pennsylvania, and in Corning, New York.

A staff of 20 full-time writers, reporters, editors, and photographers cover news in the five counties, and by a staff of 10 correspondents located in key communities.

News services include Associated Press, United Press, and the United Press International. The newspaper is a member of the National Newspaper Association, the American Newspaper Guild, and the Newspaper Editors Association.

Congressional Quarterly, and occasionally features from Copy News Service and similar news agencies.

Columns, columns, panels, crosswords, puzzles, and other features include William F. Buckley Jr., John Edgar Hoover, Paul Harvey, Victor Kiam, Edie, Debbie, Ray, Charles, Bruce, and many other famous names. In addition, a list of area cities appears daily on the editorial page.

Special pages include house and garden, auto, travel, church, science, and a photo page, special edition publisher's page, football, outdoor recreation, Cooperative Extension, Christmas, a year-end review.

Intensive and extensive sports coverage — like the Buffalo Bills, St. Louis Cardinals, and others. Also, the Times Herald sports pages the best read in the area.

Emphasis on local education, support of community campaigns and causes — features in addition to weddings and engagements have won readers.

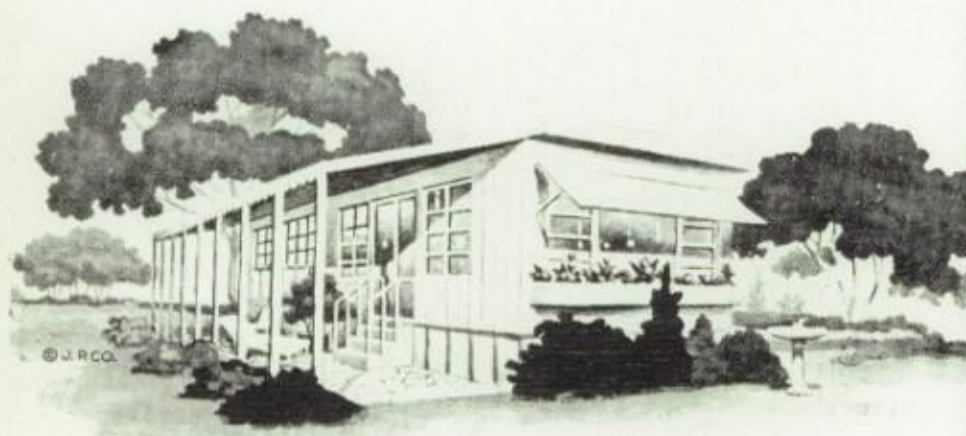

During the past year, the Times Herald launched a "Loudly Freaks" edition, published with Saturday's paper, and covering theater, radio, television, travel, art, books, music, children, and more.

The Olean, N.Y. Times Herald plant at 400 North St., built in 1965, is one of the most modern in the country.
